Tips & Tricks for Students Attending the Stanford Virtual Activities Fair

Tips & Tricks:
- Do prior research on Stanford VSOs you may be interested in
- Be yourself! Org members are excited to meet you!
- Be proactive and keep an open mind
- Don't be afraid to step out of your comfort zone
- Smile and be kind
- Budget your time wisely

Questions to Ask Orgs:
- What does your org do?
- What does it look like to be a part of your org?
- What kind of time commitment is there to be involved?
- When do you meet?
- How is your org adjusting to a virtual format?

Questions to Ask Yourself:
- What am I looking for in an org?
- How much time do I have/am I willing to devote to an org?
- Does this org feel like a natural fit?
- Will involvement in this org still allow me to pursue my own interests and enhance my academic and career goals?

- Keep a going list of orgs you want to follow-up with
- Take note of orgs that require an audition
- Sign-up for more information only if you are interested
- Film in a quiet location with good lighting, a non-distracting background, and maintain physically stable video
- Take a deep breath - there is a lot to explore and plenty of time to do so!

- Keep a going list of orgs you want to follow-up with
- Take note of orgs that require an audition
- Sign-up for more information only if you are interested
- Film in a quiet location with good lighting, a non-distracting background, and maintain physically stable video
- Take a deep breath - there is a lot to explore and plenty of time to do so!