

Welcome LaSabra!

Dear students,

We are very pleased to announce that LaSabra Williams (she/her) has joined the Office of Student Engagement as Assistant Director starting today.

As Assistant Director, LaSabra's responsibilities will include advising student organizations, training students and working on projects such as The Stanford Fund and the New Organization Process.

LaSabra comes to Stanford with more than 5 years of experience having served as Program Coordinator with the Student Involvement & Leadership Center at Indiana University in Bloomington in her most recent position. She has expertise in advising student organizations and planning large-scale programs and events. In addition, she re-designed course and retreat curricula to teach students to build their events, policies, and procedures with foundations in equitable and just practices.

LaSabra grew up in Nashville, Tennessee and earned a bachelor's degree in Communication Studies and minor in Leadership Studies from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, and a master's degree in Higher Education Administration, with a concentration in diversity and social justice from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. LaSabra's top Clifton strengths include Restorative, Communication, Arranger, Input and Positivity.

LaSabra is also a member of the PAN African Network Directorate Board of ACPA, where she serves as the Co-Chair for Volunteer Engagement. In her free time, LaSabra is an avid reader, loves to study linguistics, and to binge-watch YouTube videos. She is also an active member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

We are grateful to the Search Committee, including Christopher Carter who was the Chair, and those that were able to participate in the search process. We had a very strong pool of candidates, and we are thankful for all the thoughtful feedback given during the process.

LaSabra will be transitioning from Indiana to California in the coming weeks. In the interim, feel free to engage with her via email/remotely by emailing her at lasabra@stanford.edu. Join us in welcoming LaSabra to Student Affairs and Stanford University!

Thank you and have a great break!
